The first accident on the N. & S. C. railroad occurred Saturday when the work train engine was derailed by a spike that had been left on the rail. The accident occurred just outside of town and it was several hours before the engine was gotten back on the rails. No serious damage was done but the crew was delayed several hours in getting back to their homes at Clio.

DEATH OF MRS. COTTINGHAM.

Dillon was shocked and grieved on last Sunday morning to learn that Mrs. H. K. Cottingham was dead. The summons came shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night and was so unexpected that those gathered around the bedside could scarcely believe that the spirit of this good woman had returned to the God who gave it. Saturday at noon Mrs. Cottingham was seized with an attack of acute indigestion which developed into paralysis of the left side and in less than twelve hours after she was taken sick death ensued. The day preceding her death she appeared to be in excellent health and was on the streets shopping, and the announcement that she had passed away during the night was a great shock to the community.

All the care and love that skilled physicians and an anxious household could apply for her comfort and assistance were brought into play, but the fiat of Him who rules our incomings and outgoings had been issued and after a brief struggle, despite the prayers and entreaties of those who loved her, their appeals were overruled and the sufferer's spirit took its flight to that home the Christian believes is the fulfillment of the life ever lasting. And thus after a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, trusted and loved. She reared her own monument while she lived in the hearts of all who knew her.

Mrs. Cottingham, before her marriage in the early eighties, was a Miss Mary White. She was born and reared near Pee Dee and is survived by several brothers and sisters. She was 52 years of age and is survived by a husband, Mr. Henry K. Cottingham, and two daughters and one son, Mrs. C. C. Graham, Miss Florence Cottingham and Mr. Lawrence Cottingham. Of her own family she is survived by three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Eugenia McDonald, of Scotland county, Mrs. Sallie Regan and Miss Alice White, Mr. J. W. White of Bennettsville and Mr. S. J. White, of Pee Dee.

The funeral was held from the residence at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the interment was made at Mt. Holly that afternoon, her pastor, Rev. W. C. Kirkland, conducting the ceremonies.
